ORDER

The court ordered the respondents to show cause why they should not be adjudged in civil contempt for non-compliance with this court's July 20, 2018 order. Counsel for the respondents moves to withdraw representation of the respondents, stating that he immediately passed the show cause order to the respondents and made repeated attempts to communicate with respondents. Asserting a lack of meaningful response and breakdown of the attorney-client relationship, counsel seeks permission to immediately withdraw, to serve the order on the respondents via email, and to allow respondents 30 days in which to obtain new counsel. The National Labor Relations Board does not object to counsel's withdrawal but requests the respondents further be granted 45 days from the order to respond to the Board's petition.

Counsel's motion to withdraw is GRANTED. Counsel is directed to serve a copy of this order upon all respondents and to further file with this court a notification that demonstrates service and provides the contact information that counsel possesses for the respondents. Upon filing the notification, counsel will be formally terminated from the docket. The respondents are GRANTED an additional 30 days to retain new counsel and for that counsel to file an appearance in these proceedings. The respondents are DIRECTED to file a response to the show cause order of September 9, 2019 within 45 days from the entry of this order.
